

Al Ford and Tiffany Fox to Address Key CA Employment Law and Diversity Topics at CMCP Annual Business Conference

Burke Labor and Employment Law partner Algeria R. Ford will co-present ‘Maneuvering the Maze: Navigating California Employment Law Changes in 2024’ as a panel member on Thursday, September 12 from 2:00 pm to 3:15 pm at the California Minority Counsel Program Annual Business Conference. This panel session will analyze top employment law issues for 2024, including workplace harassment, the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act; the latest overtime rule; and strategies for promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace. Other panel members will include Christina Dixon, Managing Shareholder, Aecus Law; Tyree Jones, Partner, Reed Smith LLP; and Abiel Wong, Counsel, Chevron Corporation.

Burke Litigation partner Tiffany M. Fox will co-present ‘Why Diversity Matters in the Wake of the Anti-Woke Movement’ as a panel member on Thursday, September 12 from 3:45 pm to 5:00 pm at the CMCP Annual Business Conference. This panel session will focus on the importance of diversity in the midst of the current anti-woke movement in the U.S. Other panel members will include Audrea Golding, Partner, Fragomen Worldwide; Heather Vigil, Office Managing Shareholder, Littler Mendelson, P.C.; and James Wang, Senior Corporate Counsel; Autodesk Inc.

The CMCP Annual Business Conference will take place on September 11 through September 13, 2024, at the UCLA Meyer and Renee Luskin Conference Center in Los Angeles, California. For more information on the Seminar, please click here.

RELATED PRACTICES

California Public Law Litigation
California City Attorney
Employment Law and Litigation
Litigation

RELATED PEOPLE

Algeria R. Ford
Tiffany M. Fox