Ephraim (“Eppi”) Margolin is an associate in Burke’s Los Angeles office and a member of the Public Law practice group. Ephraim’s practice consists of providing general counsel services to various cities and public agencies, with a focus on land use matters.

Prior to joining Burke, Ephraim served as Deputy City Attorney of the cities of Calabasas, Ojai, and Barstow at another firm focusing on public law. Ephraim also completed a one-year fellowship at a Central Coast firm which serves as the City Attorney for the City of Santa Cruz and as counsel for other public entities.

While in law school, Ephraim worked for several federal and local agencies including the Oakland City Attorney’s Office, the Enforcement Division of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and completed an externship at the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals. He also served as the Publishing Editor of the Berkeley Journal of Entertainment & Sports Law.

Ephraim graduated from Berkeley Law with a Juris Doctor, receiving an American Jurisprudence Award and a Prosser Prize for academic excellence. Ephraim graduated magna cum laude from University of California, Los Angeles, with a Bachelor’s degree in Philosophy.
