

Rachel H. Richman

Partner

Los Angeles

444 South Flower Street

40th Floor

Los Angeles, CA 90071-2942

✉ rrichman@bwslaw.com

☎ D: +1 213.236.2828

☎ T: +1 213.236.0600

Pronouns: she, her, hers

Rachel has proudly provided city attorney and general counsel services to public agencies throughout California for 25 years.

Rachel serves as the City Attorney for the City of Camarillo and the City of Rosemead. She previously served as City Attorney to the cities of Arvin and Delano and as the Assistant City Attorney for the cities of Alhambra and Santa Clarita for several years.

Rachel has extensive experience providing legal and practical advice to city councils, agency boards, city managers, department heads, and staff on a broad range of issues including planning and zoning, CEQA, conflicts of interest, open meeting laws, public contracting, prevailing wages, public records, first amendment issues, code enforcement, elections, ADA and mobile home park regulations. She drafts opinions, ordinances, resolutions, and negotiates and drafts agreements. She attends as legal counsel, city council meetings, planning commission meetings, and mobile home rent control panel meetings.

Rachel is experienced working on behalf of cities with developers on commercial, residential, and mixed use projects. She has negotiated and drafted development agreements, exclusive negotiating agreements, owner participation and disposition and development agreements, and affordable housing agreements. She has worked on general plan updates, specific plans and amendments, first time home buyer agreements, façade improvement agreements, and reviewing and advising on CEQA documents.

Rachel handles various aspects of labor and employment matters. These matters include responding to DFEH complaints, discipline and grievance matters, drafting personnel policies and for labor negotiations.

Rachel regularly handles issues related to public works construction projects, including development of notices inviting bids, to reviewing

PRACTICES

Public Law

EDUCATION

J.D., Loyola Law School Los Angeles, 1999

B.S., Political Science University of California, Santa Barbara, 1994

ADMISSION

State Bar of California

United States District Court for the Central District of California

AFFILIATIONS

City Attorneys Association of Los Angeles County

League of California Cities City Attorney's Department Fair Political Practices Commission Committee

League of California Cities, Fair Political Practices Committee Chair 2016-2017

Los Angeles County Bar Association - Government Law Section

bids and recommendation of award, she has dealt with bid protests as well as advising on dealing with construction delays, stop notices, liquidated damages issues and prevailing wage issues.

Rachel also has experience in eminent domain on behalf of cities, agencies, and for the Alameda Corridor-East Construction Authority involving pre-condemnation activities, initiation of condemnation actions, and drafting and negotiating settlement agreements. She is also cognizant of the public concerns that exist with the use of eminent domain.

Rachel provides training on ethics and AB 1234, municipal governance ADA inclusion requirements and transparency laws to firm clients as well as providing presentations at various municipal conferences. Rachel served as Chair of the League's FPPC Committee.

While at law school, Rachel was a member of Loyola's Moot Court Honors Board and received "Top Ten Brief" recognition. She was on the National Moot Court team and winner of the Regional National Moot Court competition. During law school she was a law clerk for the Community Redevelopment Agency of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles County Counsel's Public Works Department.

In her approach to working with legislative bodies, staff and others to achieve their goals which can often be full of challenges she ascribes to the following perspective: "There are no shortcuts to any place worth going." (Beverly Sills)

INSIGHTS

Join Us at the CalCities Annual Conference and Expo this October!