State Bar of California

Solange Fortenbach is an associate in Burke's Public Law and Litigation practice groups. Solange earned her Bachelors at New York University where she double majored in Politics and Environmental Science. At NYU, Solange was on the Moot Court team and later interned in Washington D.C. at the U.S. Department of Justice in the Environment and Natural Resources Division.

Solange earned her J.D. from the University of California, Irvine School of Law. During her first semester at law school, Solange interned at the ACLU Southern California, working advocacy hotlines for incarcerated individuals living in OC jails. Furthermore, for three semesters, Solange co-led a letter writing program where students wrote and advocated for individuals living in Orange County (OC) jails.

Solange focused her schooling on refining speech and writing skills. She was a quarter finalist in UCI's Moot Court competition and received the Faculty Award in both Supreme Court Litigation and Trial Advocacy.
