AFFILIATIONS

California Lawyers Association -
Public Law Section

Zachery joins the firm with several years of experience in all matters of public sector collective bargaining. This includes serving as a lead negotiator, administrative litigator before local adjudicative bodies, contracted adjudicators, and the California Public Employee Relations Board (“PERB”), and civil litigator in both state and federal courts with an emphasis on collective bargaining and public law matters.

Zachery is also an experienced appellate litigator, having served as lead counsel for and argued matters before several state courts of appeal and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal, and lead counsel before the United States Supreme Court on behalf of several large entity clients as amicus curiae. He is also experienced with public employee disciplinary matters.

Zachery received his law degree with distinction from the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. He is a member of the Roger J. Traynor Society, McGeorge’s scholastic honor society. He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Davis, with majors in political science and philosophy, and is an alumnus of the University of California Washington Center. Zachery is currently a graduate student at the University of Southern California’s Sol Price School of Public Policy.
