

Joan Cox and Tamar Burke Deliver Highly Attended Webinar on SCOTUS Grants Pass Decision

RELATED PRACTICES

California City Attorney
Public Law

RELATED PEOPLE

Tamar M. Burke
Deirdre Joan Cox

With a webinar audience exceeding 350 participants, Burke partner Deirdre Joan Cox and associate Tamar M. Burke delivered an insightful analysis and evaluation of the impact of the highly followed SCOTUS decision in Grants Pass v. Johnson pertaining to municipal anti-camping ordinances and the homeless. Joan and Tamar covered the evolution of anti-camping ordinance enforcement and litigation in the U.S. and in California. Their one-hour presentation included recommendations for structuring anti-camping ordinances in the wake of the Grants Pass decision. The 'Grants Pass v. Johnson: A New Legal Landscape for Cities' webinar was hosted and produced by California City News, a GrassrootsLab publication, and accredited for 1.0 hours of California State Bar MCLE credit.

Click here to watch the recording

The presentation slides can be downloaded at:
Burke SCOTUS Grants Pass Webinar PPT Deck- July 10, 2024